Jonesboro Public School District Offers Free Summer Meals to Children and Teens through USDA's SUN Meals Program.

Jonesboro, Arkansas — This summer, Jonesboro Public School District is proud to participate in the U.S. Department of Agriculture's SUN Meals program, offering free, nutritious meals to all children and teens 18 and under. Through SUN Meals, families can ensure their kids continue to eat well when school is out—no registration or ID required.

Meal Details:

- Who: All children and teens 18 and under
- What: Free breakfast and/or lunch
- When: May 27th – July 29th, Monday - Friday, Breakfast (7:30am - 9:30AM) & Lunch (11:00AM – 1:00PM).
- Where:
 - Jonesboro High School – May 27th – July 29th
 - Annie Camp Junior High – May 27th – June 26th
 - Leadership Elementary – July 6th – July 29th
- How: Just show up! No application, registration, or ID needed.

The USDA's SUN Meals program helps ensure children have access to healthy meals and snacks throughout the summer months when school meals are not available. Meals follow USDA nutrition guidelines and are served in a safe, supervised environment.
