AP Spanish Summer Work

Sr. Lunsford (eriklunsford@maclay.org)

Have a great summer,

but don't forget to work on your Spanish!

A little each day now will give a boost for your 2026-2027 school year! With the changes to the assessments of the AP exam, this practice becomes more important than ever! As such, all AP Spanish students are required to complete all tasks set forth below. All activities together will count as 1 test grade composed of the 3 parts:

To support writing, speaking and listening: a TalkAbroad task about what is a typical American summer vacation vs how Hispanics spend their summer months. See below for more info.

To support writing: selected grammar practice sheets need to be completed for accuracy. In some cases, this is review and practice. In other cases, this may be exposure to new material. See 2nd page

To support Reading Comprehension: 2 texts (an article and a promotional material + answering questions about each text. See 2nd page.

The TalkAbroad activity: you are going to have a conversation about the things that you do-did this summer as a typical teenager, and you are going to engage your partner about what are examples of how the Spanish speakers in their country typically spend their summer months. Your TalkAbroad credits and section codes will be the same as from your previous class last year if you are a returning student from Maclay. The conversation should be completed by the due date, and ALL OF THE planning-reflection pages should be turned in on the first A or B Day of the new semester ON PAPER. If you are new to Maclay, you will be assigned and given a credit from the TalkAbroad website once you arrive at school and will have 2 weeks to complete the assignment (all other summer will also be due at this time).

Requirements:

1. An Intro that has some brief chit chat to break the ice 1-2 mins but then launches into a Presentational Mode monologue about what you and typical American teenager do usually during the summer months that lasts for about 3-4 mins. The remaining 10-12 min is about asking and engaging on conversation about what do teenagers and adults do during their summer months (which may be a vacation or not).
2. Filled in Planning and Reflection pages that should be turned in once you come to school. See link right above here.

Things to keep in mind: use the planning pages as fuel for the fire to sustain your conversation when you need it, but they should NOT BE ALL THAT THERE IS to your conversation; those planning and reflection papers are due once you return from summer.

The Grammar practice via linked pages. These pages are in PDF format, and ALL answers of all sections are to be turned in on the original printed paper and handwritten (nothing typed will be accepted) to receive credit. There are 21 activities with a CIRCLE and the instructions are in Spanish, but I did leave some clues for you to follow where I felt you could use a hand.

The Reading Passages are linked here: LECTURA 1 and LECTURA 2 . They have questions that are MCQs. ALL answers of all sections are to be turned in on the original printed paper and handwritten (nothing typed will be accepted) to receive credit.

So, plan and schedule accordingly with your other work requirements but also please: Enjoy Your Summer!

¡Qué tengas un buen verano y nos vemos pronto! Sr. Lunsford
