

Kimberly Clinton Appointed New Assistant Superintendent for Special Education & Student Services For Medford Public Schools

MEDFORD- Medford Public Schools Superintendent Dr. Suzanne B. Galusi has named Kimberly Clinton as the district's next Assistant Superintendent for Special Education & Student Services. Clinton's appointment is expected to be confirmed by the Medford School Committee on June 8, 2026.

Clinton brings over 25 years of educational experience to her new position, including the last 18 years in the Medford Public Schools. During her career in Medford, Clinton has worked as a special education teacher, an evaluation team leader, and spent the past five years serving as the special education coordinator for both Medford High School and the Andrews Middle School. She has also led the district's Extended School Year (ESY) program since 2021 and the Home School program since the beginning of this school year.

"After 18 years in this district, this community holds deep personal and professional meaning for me, and I am truly grateful for the opportunity to continue partnering with our students, families and staff," said Clinton. "I am excited to build upon the strong relationships, systems and successes already in place while continuing to strengthen inclusive practices, meaningful collaboration and equitable access to high-quality learning experiences. I remain deeply committed to listening, learning and working alongside our community to ensure that all students receive the support, opportunities and sense of belonging they need to reach their fullest potential."

In her role as Assistant Superintendent, Clinton will oversee the delivery of special education & student services for students in grades pre-K to 12 and post-secondary. She will lead the district's robust offerings of substantially separate programs, Title IX compliance, and the implementation of 504 plans while offering support to the district's School Counseling, Health and Transportation departments. Clinton will also partner with teachers, educators, administrators and parent advisory councils to further strengthen compliance, coherence and equitable access to learning.

Clinton earned her Master of Education degree from the University of Massachusetts, Boston and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Northeastern University. She resides in Middlesex county with her husband and three children.
