AP Lit Summer Reading Assignment (CSSNFL) AP Literature – Terich / Pfister

Fill out all of the topics below to fill in this worksheet out as you read. Each of the entries must consist of TWO illustrative quotations from the text and sufficient explanations / analyses of each to accompany the quotations. Think of this as the evidence you are gathering to make an argument. Since this is being used for the entirety of the novel, try to pick quotations that are most / best illustrative of the topic.

Character: (Choose two characters to analyze. Find quotations to exemplify your analysis and then write your analysis for each quotation. Your analysis can go beyond the quotations themselves.)	Character 1: Character 2:
Setting: (Choose two quotations that help exemplify the setting of the story. Then, provide an analysis for each of the quotations, explaining their relevance within the text.)
Structure: (The structure of a text can be the way the story is told and also the genre in which it is told. Find two quotations that help define the "structure" of the story and then analyze.)

Narration: (Find two quotations that help define the style of narration or the function of the narrator in the text and then analyze.)
Figurative Language: (Find two examples of figurative language that stand out to you (Simile, Metaphor, Personification, Hyperbole, Allusion, etc.) and then analyze these examples, including how they relate to the overall meaning of the text.)
Literary Argument: (What is your opinion as to the validity / truthfulness of the story? What evidence do you have to support your claim?)
