1) TEXT-TO-SELF CONNECTION

How does a scenario or character in this story remind you of something that happened in your own life?

2026 SUMMER ASSIGNMENT

2) POINT OF VIEW

How does the story change because it is told from different points of view, not just Chase's? Explain how these different viewpoints add to the story. Then describe how the book would be different if the story was told only from Chase's perspective. Use specific details from the text to support your ideas.

3) THEME

What "big idea" (such as friendship, fear, family, or growing up) is this story about? Explain what the author is trying to tell us about that idea through the choices and actions of the characters.
