

Monarch School

JUVENILE COURT AND COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

Monarch School is a WASC-accredited, K-12 public school operated by the San Diego County Office of Education dedicated to serving students and families impacted by homelessness.

Monarch provides a safe, inclusive, and trauma-informed learning environment where students are supported academically, socially, and emotionally. Through a whole-child approach grounded in belonging, equity, and dignity, Monarch integrates high-quality instruction with comprehensive supports—including counseling, health services, and community partnerships—to remove barriers to learning and ensure continuity of education.
