90 Day Waiver - Admission of Nonresident Students

Residency
Parent/Guardian(s) are required to provide proof of residency that they reside in the Buckeye Valley Local Schools. They must provide a sworn statement revealing the location of the house and their intention to reside there. You must also provide a statement from a home builder, real estate broker, or bank officer confirming that the house construction is planned and is awaiting approval of the mortgage loan. The period of tuition-free attendance in these cases may extend up to ninety (90) days. The ninety days begin when the student starts school. Students on a 90-day waiver DO NOT receive any transportation from the district.
