

A-List Achievements

Ellie Stewart receives her Certificate of Appointment to West Point Military Academy.

The Bolles Upper School recognized some of its exceptional students at its Awards Day presentation on May 15.

With Bolles President and Head of School Tyler Hodges, Associate Head of School Andrew Forrester and Upper School Head Moya Marks presiding over the ceremony, more than 100 students and faculty were recognized in various award categories ranging from academics and athletics to character and citizenship to fine and performing arts.

Among the exceptional award recipients were seniors Ellie Stewart and Michael Gumino, who both received an official Certificate of Appointment for West Point.