Vision:

Cab Calloway School of the Arts is a community where the arts and academics unite to develop creative and innovative global leaders.

Mission:

Cab Calloway School of the Arts offers a rigorous learning experience that integrates the arts and academics to foster the growth of independent inquiry, critical and creative thinking, and the innovative application of acquired skills.

History, Community, & Admissions:

Cab Calloway School of the Arts (CCSA) is a public magnet school with an arts-based curriculum in the state of Delaware. Founded in 1992 by a group of parents seeking quality education in a motivating environment, the school is part of the Red Clay Consolidated School District (RCCSD). Named after the American jazz icon, Cab Calloway, CCSA provides both academic and arts education for students in grades 6-12. Any prospective student who is a Delaware state resident is invited to apply for admission to Cab Calloway School of the Arts. Students must demonstrate proficiency in at least one of the 9 arts areas offered as majors with the school through a Skills Assessment.
