

7th Grade Summer Reading

Every incoming 7th grader should aim to read at least five books this summer. Please select books that are interesting to you and at an appropriate reading level for you. There is a list of books attached that previous 7th graders have enjoyed, but please do not consider this list exhaustive. As you read, fill out this reading log. You will complete a small assignment about your selections at the beginning of the year.

Happy Reading!
