Family Connection Activity

We Are Definitely Human

by X. Fang

When three mysterious visitors from "Europe" crash-land in Mr. Li's field, he does what any good host would—he welcomes them in! Kindness and friendship bring everyone together.

WHY THIS MATTERS

This story shows kindness, curiosity, and acceptance help us build friendships—even when someone seems very different from us. A simple act of welcome can make someone feel at home.

ABOUT THE STORY

Mr. Li welcomes three unusual visitors and helps fix their "car." The townsfolk join in, share food, play games, and discover that, in many ways, they are all the same—human!

ACTIVITY 1: WELCOME, NEW FRIEND!

1 CREATE A NEW FRIEND

Invent a visitor from another planet, country, or community.

- Draw what they look like
- What they enjoy doing
- What makes them unique

2 GIVE THEM A STORY

Help your child answer:

- What is their name?
- Where do they come from?
- What is something special about them?
- What would they like to learn about Earth?

3 WRITING CONNECTION

Have your child complete one of the following:

- "My new friend is _____."
- "I would welcome my friend by _____."
- "Even though we are different, we both _____."

Write 2 to 4 sentences describing how they would help their new friend feel welcome.

ACTIVITY 2: SAME AND DIFFERENT

Compare: You and Your New Friend

FAMILY TALK

- How can people be different and still be friends?
- Why was Mr. Li kind to the visitors?
- How does kindness help people feel welcome?

ACTIVITY 3: WELCOME BASKET

Have your child draw or write items they would place in a welcome basket for a new neighbor or visitor.

IDEAS

- A favorite snack
- A map of the neighborhood
- A drawing
- A friendly note

WRITING CONNECTION

Complete this sentence:
"If someone new came to my community, I would help them by _____."

WHAT YOUR CHILD IS LEARNING

- Empathy and kindness
- Compare and contrast skills
- Writing and self-expression
- Understanding diversity and inclusion
- Building friendships and community

FAMILY TIP

Talk with your child about times when they were new somewhere. Discuss what made them feel welcome and how they can help others feel included.

KINDNESS IS A LANGUAGE EVERYONE CAN UNDERSTAND.
When we welcome others, we help our communities grow stronger!
