The senior class at South High School will revisit the origins of their educational journeys and enjoy a final meal together on Wednesday.

In the morning, the seniors will travel to Carl Ben Eielson Middle School, Lewis & Clark Elementary School, Jefferson Elementary School, Lincoln Elementary School, Clara Barton Elementary School, Ed Clapp Elementary School, and Kennedy Elementary School for a graduation walk through. Students and staff from the schools will line the hallway to celebrate and cheer on the soon-to-be graduates as they walk through their old school one final time. Students from North High School will also be present at Jefferson and Clara Barton.

The seniors will return to South at noon for a senior picnic outside the school, provided by the administration. They will enjoy each other's company together as a full class for one of the last times before they go their own ways after graduation.
