

Asst Supt of Curriculum, Instruction and Pupil Personnel Services - Revised Retirement Date

- Amy Petrassi request to change retirement date to June 2027
- Position is actually two former full time administrator roles, combined; very difficult to hire for because a very specific skill set is needed (job description)
- Hiring Process did not yield a successful candidate
 - Two of top candidates accepted Asst Supt positions in other Districts, for higher salary in a role that required less breadth and depth
- Continuity in Special Education: CSE Chair being appointed in another District; time to develop new person in the role
- District Review/Study - gives time for analysis of District organizational structure and ability to adjust for 27-28 if determined to be appropriate
