

BOOK STUDY II: 2026

The Writing Revolution 2.0: A Guide to Advancing Thinking through Writing in All Subjects and Grades

Featured Author: Natalie Wexler

FALL 2026 STATEWIDE BOOK STUDY SCHEDULE

7:00 PM - 8:30 PM EST

www.mresa.org

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 2026

SESSION I - AUTHOR KICK-OFF, MEET AND GREET WITH THE AUTHOR

Join us for an inspiring kickoff session featuring Natalie Wexler as we dive into The Writing Revolution 2.0: A Guide to Advancing Thinking through Writing in All Subjects and Grades. Discover the vision behind the book and connect with fellow Georgia educators to launch a year of collaborative literacy learning.

- Before September 2nd -Assigned Reading: Chapter 1

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 2026

SESSION II - WRITING SENTENCES WITH PURPOSE: FROM IDEAS TO IMPACT

- Learn how purposeful sentence-level instruction helps students turn ideas into clear, meaningful writing across all subjects. This session introduces the Hochman Method® strategies that build stronger thinking, coherence, and academic performance.
- Before Sept 17th-Assigned Reading: Chapters 2-4

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2026

SESSION III - WRITING FOR LENGTH: HELPING STUDENTS SAY MORE WITH INTENTION

- Help students write more without losing clarity or purpose using research-based strategies for idea development and elaboration. This session shows how structured routines and targeted feedback build writing stamina and depth.
- Before Oct 22nd-Assigned Reading: Chapters 5-10

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 10, 2026

SESSION IV - FROM SENTENCES TO SYSTEMS: HOW TO ASSESS WRITING AND ADAPT THE HOCHMAN METHOD IN CLASSROOMS

Learn how to use writing assessments to guide instruction and strengthen implementation of the Hochman Method® across classrooms. This session shows how to analyze student writing and build consistent systems that support ongoing, purposeful writing growth.

- Before Dec 10th-Assigned Reading: Chapters 11-13

REGISTRATION

RESOURCES

