Summer Reading Assignment for Incoming 6th & 7th Graders

Assignment Overview:
● Reading Selection: Choose one book from your grade's Summer Reading List.
● Reading Timeline: Complete the reading before the first week of school.
● In-Class Activities: Be prepared to engage in discussions and activities related to your chosen book during the first week of school.

Suggested Preparation:
● As you read, consider taking notes on key characters, plot developments, and themes to aid in discussions.

6th Grade Summer Reading List

1. Fish in a Tree by Lynda Mullaly Hunt: Ally, a bright sixth-grader struggles with dyslexia and hides her inability to read until a new teacher helps her embrace her differences and unlock her potential.

2. The Mysterious Benedict Society by Trenton Lee Stewart: Four gifted children pass a series of mind-bending tests to join a secret mission aimed at stopping a global mind-control scheme orchestrated by a villainous mastermind.

3. Lemons by Melissa Savage: After moving to a new town, Lemonade Liberty Witt teams up with an eccentric boy obsessed with Bigfoot, embarking on an unexpected adventure and forming an unlikely friendship.

4. The Mighty Miss Malone by Christopher Paul Curtis: Twelve-year-old Deza Malone navigates the hardships of the Great Depression, embarking on a journey with her family to find her father and discovering resilience and hope along the way.

7th Grade Summer Reading List

1. Bye Forever, I Guess by Jodi Meadows: Thirteen-year-old Ingrid, coping with her parents' death, finds solace in online gaming and a secret blog, leading her to a mysterious gamer and a journey of self-discovery.

2. 12 to 22 by Jen Calonita: Eager to join social media, 12-year-old Harper uses a mysterious filter that catapults her ten years into the future, offering insights into her future choices and the importance of cherishing the present.

3. Jennifer Chan Is Not Alone by Tae Keller: Seventh-grader Mallory Moss enjoys her status among the popular crowd until Jennifer Chan, a new student obsessed with aliens, goes missing. As Mallory investigates, she confronts her own role in Jennifer's disappearance, exploring themes of bullying, peer pressure, and the courage to stand up for others.

4. The Miscalculations of Lightning Girl by Stacy McAnulty: After being struck by lightning, Lucy Callahan gains genius-level math abilities and develops obsessive-compulsive tendencies. Though ready for college, her grandmother insists she attend middle school for a year, where Lucy learns valuable lessons about friendship, fitting in, and life beyond number