105c Schools of Choice in St. Joseph County, Michigan - 1st Semester (2026-27 School Year)

In an effort to provide a quality education for all students in the county, the nine school districts in St. Joseph County, with the support of the ISD, are offering a Section 105c Schools of Choice for the 2026-27 school year. Schools of Choice allows students of families who reside in Branch, Calhoun, Cass, Kalamazoo, or Van Buren Intermediate School District a choice to attend participating school districts within the St. Joseph County ISD.*

School of Choice Program Applications are available at any school district Superintendent's office and at the ISD office. Additional information may be obtained by calling the following school districts.

Applications must be submitted to your choice school district during the "application window" to be considered:
