

Deborah Roberts

2026 Outstanding Senior Volunteer

Nominated by Citrus Grove Elementary School

Mrs. Deborah Roberts, a retired Volusia County’s teacher, embodies the very best of the meaning to serve a school community. Mrs. Roberts represents dedication to education at every stage of her life. She volunteers daily in second and fourth grade classrooms, providing small group support, joyful encouragement, and excellent instruction. Mrs. Robert’s presence has lifted student achievement in meaningful ways. She is deeply committed to students and learning. Due to her dedication, a 4th grade class last year, one hundred percent of those students earned a score of three or higher in ELA. Mrs. Roberts’s connection with our education continues to show within our school through the students she serves and the teachers she supports.
