

5202 ~~Stock~~ Epinephrine ~~Stock Auto-Injectors~~

~~Campbell County School~~ The District may acquire, maintain, and dispense to schools within the District; a supply of epinephrine ~~auto-injectors~~ for emergency use, including auto-injectors, nasal sprays, or any other approved device or method authorized by law. The school nurse and/or other trained staff members, ~~as may be designated by school administration,~~ may administer a stock epinephrine ~~auto-injector~~ to a student whom the school nurse or ~~assigned~~ trained personnel in good faith believes is experiencing a severe allergic reaction.

The District will implement a plan consistent with current guidelines ~~and the Wyoming Department of Education School Guidelines for the Management of Students with Life-Threatening Allergies. T~~he District's plan will be made available on the District's ~~website web site or the website web site of each school within the District.~~

Adoption Date: June 10, 2014, Revised September 14, 2021; ~~Revised June 9, 2026~~

Legal Reference(s): Wyoming Department of Education School Guidelines for the Management of Students with Life-Threatening Allergies

Cross Reference(s):

Administrative Regulation: 5202-R

5202-R ~~Stock~~ Epinephrine ~~Stock Auto-Injectors~~

~~Campbell County School~~ The District participates in an optional program in which ~~provides~~ stock epinephrine ~~auto-injectors, available at school locations, can be that can be~~ administered by the school nurse or other trained District personnel to a student whom ~~is the school nurse or trained District personnel.~~ ~~believed to be~~ is experiencing a severe allergic reaction. ~~The District plan is based on the Wyoming Department of Education School Guidelines for the Management of Students with Life-Threatening Allergies.~~

Staff training regarding recognition of allergic reactions and appropriate care will be provided by the District. Trained staff ~~will be designated by administration or designee and~~ may include, but ~~are is~~ not limited to, ~~classroom~~ teachers, ~~specials teachers~~, coaches, activity sponsors, as well as nutrition services, office, Aquatic Center, and transportation staff.

- Training will include:
 - ~~the established protocol~~
 - ~~Identification~~ Signs of life-threatening allergic reactions;
 - Administration ~~and demonstration~~ of epinephrine ~~auto-injector~~ and care of life-threatening allergic reaction;
 - ~~Demonstration of epinephrine auto-injector; and~~
 - Documentation of allergic reaction incident and record of epinephrine administration.
- Training records ~~and a list of currently trained staff will be maintained.~~ ~~will be completed and stored for seven years.~~
- ~~A list of currently trained staff will be maintained by the District.~~
- Prevention of allergen exposure ~~will~~ ~~may~~ include interventions by ~~various~~ District personnel, including the following:
 - Building Nurses: Provision of training.
 - Nutrition Services Personnel: Adherence to strict procedures for preventing cross-contamination of allergens.
 - Transportation Personnel: Restricting food and beverages on daily local bus routes, with the exception for students with diabetes, hypoglycemia, or other medically confirmed health conditions.

- Parents/Guardians: Cooperation with classroom and building restrictions.
- Interventions to prevent allergen exposure may include:
 - Hand washing before and after meals;
 - Procedures for cleaning tables, non-disposable utensils, and garbage disposal;
 - Allergy-free friendly tables in the lunchroom and classrooms;
 - Restriction of food and beverages on daily local bus routes, with appropriate exceptions for students with diabetes, hypoglycemia, or other medically confirmed health conditions;
 - Prohibition of the use of scented room fresheners, including but not limited to flameless candles, scented wax burners, plug-ins, misters, and aerosols in District facilities;
 - Utilization of scent-free products in District facilities when possible;
 - Encouraging the use of scent-free personal care items by staff and students; and
 - Communication including:
 - Notifications to parents/guardians of classmates of students with severe allergies according to their Individual Health Plan.
 - Signs for classrooms and buildings.
- Storage and Security
 - Building and/or nursing services coordinator will monitor expiration dates of stock epinephrine auto-injectors.
 - Building administrator and nurse will determine storage location, access, and security of stock epinephrine.
- District Activities
 - Stock epinephrine auto-injectors will be accessible at building locations during, before, and after school activities.
 - Coaches and sponsors of activities are responsible for familiarizing themselves with storage details of building stock epinephrine autoinjectors.
- Procurement of stock epinephrine auto-injectors
 - ~~County Health Officer may write~~ The District will obtain prescriptions for stock epinephrine autoinjectors as needed.

- ~~County Health Officer will approve~~ The District will obtain standing orders for the administration of stock epinephrine ~~auto-injectors~~ on an annual basis.
- ~~Campbell County School District~~ The District may purchase epinephrine ~~auto-injectors~~ from a variety of vendors and pursue grants for the purchase of stock epinephrine ~~auto-injectors~~.
- The parent or legal guardian of a student with a known severe allergy, as determined by a health care professional, will be responsible ~~to supply to~~ for supplying the school with the medication needed for treatment of anaphylaxis or arrange for the student, if responsible and capable of self-administration, to self-carry.

ADOPTION DATE: May 12, 2015; Revised September 14, 2021

LEGAL REFERENCE(S): Wyoming State Statute 21-4-316; Wyoming Department of Education School Guidelines for the Management of Students with Life-Threatening Allergies

CROSS REFERENCE(S): 5202, 5153, 5153-R, 5201, 5201-R

ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATION: