Board of Education Meeting Notes, August 8, 2022

Community Education Update:
Robyn Shingler, Director of Community Education and Outreach gave a summary of the past school year's activities. Community Education (CE) offered 85 classes with more than 1000 registrations. CE also manages the facilities calendar outside the school day and issued 540+ permits across 70 groups and organizations. Robyn Shingler also gave an update on social media growth and publications which are created and sent out through their office including CE catalogs, SSD newsletters and the Hawk Board Memo. She also reviewed the Senior Tax Exchange Program (STEP) which invites seniors to volunteer in district classrooms in exchange for property tax credit.

Staffing Update:
Josh Swanson, Director of Finance discussed the staffing update with the board. The district has hired for all the vacancies except for four positions. On-going interviews, offers and recruitment are taking place.

Referendum Consideration:
The school board discussed the possibility of moving forward with an operational and/or a capital referendum. Discussion included community survey results. The board decided to not move forward with a referendum at this time.

Commons Project Change Order:
Shawn Mathwich, Director of Buildings and Grounds presented an update to the project taking place in the high school commons. There were changes made to the door, which required an adjustment to flooring. The Board approved the revision to the project changes.

Donation:
Randi Anderson, Superintendent, presented a donation from ATC/Milwaukee Bucks for $300 to purchase and plant a tree at each of the four school buildings. The Board approved accepting the donation.

CESA 8 Board of Control:
The Board discussed the need to fill a vacancy on the CESA 8 Board of Control, which was previously held by Diane Hoffman. The Board voted to appoint Mart Grams as replacement to that role.
