Board of Education Meeting Notes: May 16, 2022

Finance Committee Report: Chuck Dallas reported debt defeasance could save the district approx. $287,000. There will be cafeteria improvements using food service fund balance. Community Education is recommending an additional staff position for the pool facility; pending additional information requested by committee.

Information Items:

- End-of-Year Celebration will take place June 3rd with all-staff lunch served followed by staff awards and recognition program in the auditorium.
- SCHS Graduation will be held in the gymnasium on May 27th at 6 pm. This is the first time this has happened without restrictions since May 2019.
- Summer School Update: Tom Dechant, Summer School Principal, reported that there are more than 600 students registered for summer school programming. Summer school begins on June 13 and will end on July 14th, Monday through Thursday (no classes on July 4th). Doors open at 7:45 am and busses will pick up students at the schools at 12:45 pm. Thirty-five staff will be teaching summer school with 25 support staff assisting. There is a need for three additional teachers and a wait-list has been started for summer school, however all students who registered by the deadline are enrolled.

Resolution Authorizing Transfer of Funds - Escrow Account to Pay Down General Obligation Building Bonds Series 2016, Dated March 1, 2016: Josh Swanson, Director of Finance, reported that preliminary analysis indicates that paying down debt through escrow/trust will save the district approx. $287,000 in interest and eliminate 2028-2029 payments. Board approved pre-payment of the debt through the escrow/trust as recommended.

Administrator Salaries: Josh Swanson, Director of Finance, presented the cost to give Administrators a 2.7% salary increase with an additional 2% stipend. The Board approved a 2.7% salary increase.

Special Education Paraprofessional Compensation: Josh Swanson reported that previous compensation study's recommendation would be covered within the 4.7% raise approved at the last meeting.

Hawk News:

Shawano Community Middle School hosted fifth grade classes from Olga Brener Intermediate for some fun activities and orientation to the building! Welcome to the incoming sixth grade class in the fall of 2022!!

About 500 people enjoyed a night of fun at the annual Brener Bash held last week! There were tailgate games, an art show, music performances, math games, word games, dinner, crafts, and prizes! It was wonderful to have families back in the building!!
