CUSD will pay an annual stipend to bargaining unit employees working as Special Education Teachers or School Nurses who hold the required valid California credential(s) and are assigned to positions that require those credentials. Employees in their first year in a qualifying position with the district will receive $1,100 annually, while employees in their second year and beyond will receive $1,600 annually. The stipend became effective July 1, 2025, following ratification of the 2024-2025 negotiations. Employees who only qualify for part of the school year will receive a prorated amount based on the time they met the eligibility requirements. The stipend will be paid in the final paycheck of each school year.
