

Calling all THIRD GRADE readers!

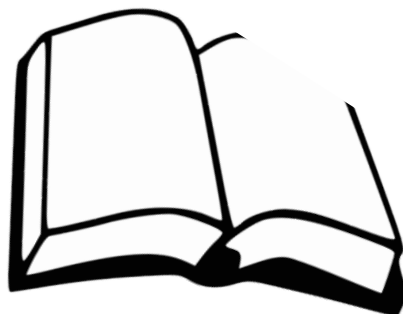

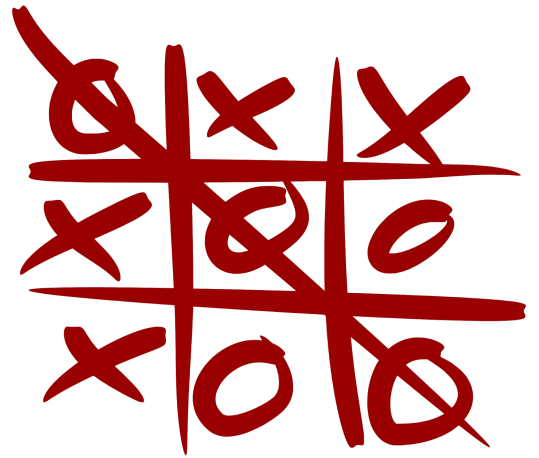

Are you ready to play some

TIC-TAC-TOE

over the summer months?

Here is how you play!

1. Start off by choosing books to read that are interesting and exciting. Refer to the list of suggested titles to guide you!
2. As you read, fill out the reading log to note the titles and genres of what you have read.
3. As you read, also look over the Tic-Tac-Toe boards that have been provided to you.
4. Fill in the boxes on the Tic-Tac-Toe boards based on what you have read. Try to "win" by filling in three boxes across, down, or diagonally on any of the boards. Can you "win" on all 3?! We bet you can! Try playing four corners, making a T or X on a board, or filling in all 27 boxes! Challenge yourself! Can you create your own board? Try it!
5. Bring your reading log and your Tic-Tac-Toe game board(s) to school in September. You will be able to share your board(s) with your classmates and your new teacher during the first week of school.

Calling all THIRD GRADE readers!

Keep track of the books you have read this summer HERE.

Print out as many of these sheets as you need!

Bring this reading log to school on the first day of school in September to show your new classmates and your new teacher all you have read!

Reader's Name: _____

[illegible]

Tic-Tac-Toe Board #1

Name: _____

I read a nonfiction text. The title was	I read a book with a funny character in it. The character's name was	I read a fiction book. The title was
I read a book that had poetry in it. The title was	I read at least 3 texts over the summer! The titles are listed on my reading log.	I read a set of directions (a how-to). I was
I read a picture book. The title was	I read a magazine. The title was	I read a chapter book. The title was

Tic-Tac-Toe Board #2

Name: _____

I read a biography. The title was	I read a book with a parent or guardian. The name of the person I read with is	I read a realistic fiction book. The title was
I read a joke book or a book full of riddles. The name of it was	I read at least 6 texts over the summer! The titles are listed on my reading log.	I read to a younger child. The name of the person I read to is
I read another picture book. The title was	I read a graphic novel. The title was	I read another chapter book. The title was

Tic-Tac-Toe Board #3

Name: _____

I read a book or books that are within a series. The name of the series was	I read a book with a mean character in it. The name of the character was	I read a book while on vacation/away from my home. I read this book when I was at/in
I read a book that was so good I had to read it twice! The name of it was	I read at least 9 texts over the summer! The titles are listed on my reading log.	I read a scary book. The title of it was
I read a book that I did not like. The title of it was	I read a book and learned something new. I learned that	I listened to an audio book this summer. The title of it was

Tic-Tac-Toe Board #4

Name: _____

Suggested Titles and Authors for 2nd into 3rd Grade

Mr. Popper's Penguins by F. Atwater
Teammates* by T. & R. Barber
By My Brother's Side* by T. & R. Barber
Ivy and Bean (series) by A. Barrows
Freckle Juice by J. Blume
Odd Boy Out* by D. Brown
Any in a sports series by M. Christopher
Jake Drake (series) by A. Clements
Jenny Archer (series) by E. Conford
Amber Brown (series) by P. Danziger
Aliens for Breakfast by J. Etra
The Day I Swapped My Dad for Two Goldfish by N. Gaiman
Owen Foote (series) by S. Greene
My Weird School (series) by D. Gutman
The People Could Fly: The Picture Book* by V. Hamilton
7 x 9 = Trouble by C. Mills
Lewis and Clark and Me by L. Myers
Moody and Stink (series) by Judy McDonald
Magic Tree House (series) by M. Osborne
Clementine (series) by S. Pennypacker
The Bee Tree by P. Polacco
Thundercake by P. Polacco
A-Z Mysteries (series) by R. Roy
Sideways Stories from Wayside School by L. Sachar
Time Warp Trio (series) by J. Scieszca
Geronimo Stilton (series) by G. Stilton
Hank Zipzer (series) by H. Winkler

*Non-fiction titles are indicated by an asterisk.