

REGINA DOMINICAN

English Department Summer Assignment - 2026

Course: Honors Literary Genres

Level: 3

Grade: 9

Check your schedule and course number to make sure you are completing the correct assignment. *****

Course Description:

This course introduces students to selected literary genres including classic and contemporary novels, short stories, drama, poetry, and essays. In this course, students develop reading skills needed for the critical analysis of literature. They examine important themes, literary devices and techniques, and the pursuit of truth and meaning in all types of language. Students develop composition skills through writing a variety of forms, including reflection, close literary analysis, creative writing in narrative and poetry, and informative research. In addition, students practice critical thinking, purposeful use of technology, oral presentation, small and large group discussion, and project-based learning.

What to Read:

Everything I Never Told You by Celeste Ng (novel)

This must be purchased IN PRINT (no e-Books are allowed for English).

ASSIGNMENT:

1. Read, highlight, and annotate the book. Look for passages that are especially important or meaningful, as well as those which are complicated or confusing so we can look at them in more detail. See the rubric on the last page for how your work will be evaluated.
2. In addition to significant annotation, prepare for a quiz on the book during the first week of class. Content will be discussed on the first day.

Assignments: The purpose of this assessment is to prepare you for further work with this book at the start of the semester, as well as to provide your teacher with a sense of your comprehension and interaction with the text as a reader. Enjoy the reading, but read closely: demonstrate close reading by actively engaging (pencil/pen/highlighter in hand) with the text, perhaps even re-reading intriguing sections. This assignment is not simply for “completion.” Please use this opportunity to develop a nuanced understanding of the book as a whole.

1. READ, HIGHLIGHT, AND ANNOTATE THE BOOK (50 pts for quality of work).

On the first day of school, your annotated book WILL BE COLLECTED. Annotate by:

Annotations Rubric: 50 pts
- highlighting or underlining

- making notes in margins for the majority of the above

- adding sticky notes (optional if you find this helps you be organized)

The act of annotating a text is making comments in the margins or within the text of your reading.

See rubric for more instructions.

2. QUIZ ON THE BOOK (50 pts for understanding expressed): This will occur within the first week of school, and you will be given more information on the content of the quiz on day one.

Academic Integrity and Honor Code of Regina Dominican

Regina Dominican is an academic community defined by its commitment to scholarship and to developing students to become independent thinkers. We expect all students to be honest and committed to the principles of academic and intellectual integrity in their preparation and submission of course work. Academic dishonesty is defined as unjust or unethical manipulation of material to achieve an academic advantage. It is the intention to circumvent learning and to present work as one's own when it isn't. Examples include but are not limited to handing in any work that is not one's own; - distributing and/or receiving answers on any graded assignment, test, quiz, paper, or homework; distributing and/or receiving a copy of any test, quiz, paper, or homework assignment; altering answers after an assessment is returned to gain credit; using study materials or accessing technology without a teacher's permission during an assessment; communicating during an assessment without permission; manipulating grades in any manner; the uncredited use, whether intentional or unintentional, of another person's words or ideas; passing off work generated from an AI website or generator as one's own. If a student suspects or has knowledge of an act of academic dishonesty, the student is obligated to inform the teacher, the Assistant Principal, a Counselor, or the Principal.

Annotations Rubric: 50 pts

Point Value	Quality of annotations	Further details:
A-/A/A+: 45-50 pts	The text is extensively annotated with copious margin notations. The annotations demonstrate a comprehensive and thoughtful reading . The margin notes show that the reader has proficiently analyzed the text, made insightful connections and drawn valid conclusions . Notations are balanced and show deep reading and thinking . All of the text is addressed.	Student annotations should reflect comprehension, inference and depth/breadth of interaction with text. Based on text type, the following types of responses should be evidenced in annotations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Questions, reactions, opinions • Predictions and Inferences • Locating important passages / key evidence or ideas • Connections <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ other sources/accounts ○ our current world ○ other texts, films, etc. • Key words or phrases including figurative, connotative and specific word choices of the writer • Challenges of author’s bias/assumptions • Identification of author’s strategies: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Development of events or characters OR ○ Structure and development of argument • Writer’s Style: Tone, POV, Facts v. Opinions, Rhetorical/ Persuasive Devices, (diction, point of view, tone, repetition, etc.) • Literary elements such as characterization, setting, narrative (point-of-view), allusions, imagery, setting, mood, etc.) • A comment on something that intrigues, inspires, confuses, aggravates, etc. • Definitions of any unfamiliar words or allusions • Particular difficult lines (it’s okay to be confused) RL.9-10.1,RL.9-10.2,RL.9-10.3,RL.9-10.4,RL.9-10.5, RL.9-10.6,RL.9-10.8,RL.9.10.9,RL.9-10.10,
B-/B/B+: 40-44	The text is adequately annotated with margin notations. The annotations demonstrate that the reader understands the text beyond the literal level . The margin notes show that the reader has analyzed the text, made some connections and drawn some conclusions . Notations are balanced and show some deep reading and thinking . Most to all of the text is addressed.
C-/C/C+: 35-39	The text is annotated with some margin notations. The annotations are basic and consist mainly of plot driven questions or literal ideas . Annotations indicate a basic understanding of the text. The reader has been able to make one or two connections , but has been unable to use the text to draw valid conclusions . Notations are unbalanced and only half of the text is addressed.
D-/D/D+30-34	The text is underlined in appropriate places, but there are very few margin notes making it difficult to evaluate how well the reader understood the reading. Notes are illogical and not balanced. Only one quarter of text has been glossed. Insufficient length and depth in comments.
F: 25-29	Significant parts of the text are completely unmarked. There are no margin notes, only underlined text; OR the text is completely unmarked.
