

1st Grade Reading List

Research has shown that the single greatest factor in predicting reading success is whether a child is read to when young. Here are some titles to get you started. If your child is already reading you can take turns reading to each other. If they are not yet reading these are great books to read aloud to your child 😊

Easy readers:

Frog and Toad Series – Arnold Lobel

Mouse Tales – Arnold Lobel

Owl at Home – Arnold Lobel

Put Me in the Zoo – Robert Lopshire

Little Bear Series – Elsa Holmelund Minarik

Green Eggs and Ham – Dr. Suess

One Fish, Two Fish – Dr. Suess

My Cat and the Hat – Dr. Suess

Biscuit Series – Alyssa Satin Capucilli

Go, Dog. Go! – P.D. Eastman

A Fly Went By – Mike McClintock and Fritz Siebel

A Fish Out of Water – Helen Palmer and P.D. Eastman

Picture books to read to your child:

Stone Soup – Marcia Brown

The Little House – Virginia Lee Burton

Mike Mulligan and the Steam Shovel – Virginia Lee Burton

Corduroy – Don Freeman

Bread and Jam for Francis Series – Russell and Lillian Hoban

Floss – Kim Lewis

Titch – Pat Hutchins

Frederick – Leo Lionni

Blueberries for Sal – Robert McCloskey

Make Way for Ducklings – Robert McCloskey

If You Give a Mouse a Cookie Series – Laura Joffe Numeroff and Felicia Bond

Amelia Bedelia – Herman Parish

The Little Engine that Could – Watty Piper

Curious George – H.A. Rey

Goodnight Moon – Margaret Wise Brown

Runaway Bunny – Margaret Wise Brown

Ferdinand- Munro Leaf

Henry and Mudge Series – Cynthia Rylant

Mr. Putter and Tabby Series – Cynthia Rylant

Caps for Sale – Esphyr Slobodkina

Doctor DeSoto – William Steig

The Biggest Bear -Lynd Ward

A Chair for My Mother – Vera B. Williams

Harry the Dirty Dog – Gene Zion

Chicka Chicka Boom Boom – Bill Martin Jr. and John Archambault