LCHS Guest Rules

Dress Code (Different for Formal/Semiformal Events - See Below):

Clothing must be in good condition, not tattered, frayed, threadbare, or see-through. Tops must have sleeves and must cover the midriff, shoulders, undergarments, and cleavage. Bottoms must be no shorter than three inches above the knee and not excessively tight. Leggings may not be worn as pants. No yoga pants. No clothing depicting/glorifying violence, weapons, death, or drug/alcohol abuse.

Students unwilling to comply with these guidelines will be asked to leave and parents will be contacted to describe the situation. It is the responsibility of student organizers to apprise all attendees of these rules and expectations in advance of the event. “I didn’t know” is not an acceptable excuse.

Formal/Semiformal Dress Code:

Students have the option to attend dances or other special events throughout the school year where formal/semiformal dress attire is required. Attendees, dates, and guests must arrive and appear Dress-Code compliant for entry. No temporary, on-site alterations are permitted.

Men: Dress slacks and button-up shirts are required. Suit coats and ties are recommended. No jeans, Tshirts, or other casual clothing is allowed.

Women: Dresses can be any strap style (including strapless for high-school students). No lower-back exposure, no exposed cleavage or midriffs, or hemlines higher than three inches above the knee in front or back, including any slits or layers.

Music:

Music will be of good taste and bereft of offensive or suggestive language or themes, or lyrics which, whether overtly or by implication, glorify sex, drug abuse, alcohol abuse, violence, self-inflicted injury or racism.

Premises:

Wandering through the school hallways and stairwells is prohibited. Wandering outside of the building (except in designated and approved areas) is not acceptable. Departing and re-entering the event without prior, parent-approved arrangement, is not acceptable. Departing school grounds and returning for a ride is prohibited.

Behavior:

Liberty will not tolerate dancing or other behavior that simulates or otherwise suggests sexual situations. Brief hugging normally associated with an amicable greeting is acceptable. Companionable physical touching customarily associated with “slow dancing” is acceptable. Holding hands, hands on shoulders and on waists as is customary for platonic dancing are acceptable behaviors. Other than these exceptions, visible space must be maintained between bodies of dance partners and students at all times throughout the event. This standard will be effectively communicated to all participants by the event organizers as well as the expectation that students observed violating these standards will be asked to leave the event. Chaperones will be the judges and final arbiters of matters involving behavior at this event.
