

Annotations look like this:

1. Label each Post-it at the top with whatever rhetorical strategy you are observing (see list from the Summer Reading instructions).

CHARACTERIZATION

Charlie

bone-thin, loved to drink & dance & laugh
tender-hearted
compassionate

p. 7

IRONY

Charlie is tender-hearted & loyal, but he also drank too much, liked
to fight & avoided game wardens.

p. 8

2.

Offer
partial quotation
and/or commentary
on what you've observed

IMAGERY

Bragg describes a photo of his grandfather:

"ragged overalls" "legs
specked with...fish blood"
"prison-camp thin"
with a catfish... "its head
as broad as a bull calf"
p. 10

HUMOR

In describing how Ava's rocking mirrored her moods: "... & to this day, I still wonder why the whole
d- thing didn't blow up from the friction of it, & burn the house down" p. 6

3. Don't forget the page #.