Duties and Responsibilities of the Bond Oversight Committee

Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee (CBOC) is tasked (by the State of California Constitution, Article XIII, Section 1, and the State of California Education Code, Sections 15278 through 15282) with informing the public concerning the expenditure and uses of Bond Revenues, specifically, by actively reviewing and reporting on the expenditure of taxpayer money for school construction in accordance with voter-approved projects. This charge is further spelled out in the CBOC's bylaws as follows:

3.1 Inform the Public. - The Committee shall inform the public about the District's expenditure of bond proceeds. In fulfilling this duty, all official communications of the Committee to either the Board or the public shall come from the Chair acting on behalf of the Committee. The Chair shall only speak on behalf of the Committee or release information attributed to the Committee that reflects the view of a majority of the Committee. No Committee member shall represent that they are speaking on behalf of the Committee unless authorized to do so by a majority of the Committee.

3.2 Review Expenditures. - The Committee shall review expenditure reports produced by the District to evaluate if (a) bond proceeds were expended only for the purposes set forth in Measure B; and (b) no bond proceeds have been used for teacher or administrative salaries or other operating expenses.

3.3 Annual Report. - At least one time annually, commencing with the end of the first fiscal year in which any bond proceeds are expended and continuing through the end of the fiscal year in which bond proceeds have been spent in full, the Committee shall annually prepare and approve, by majority vote, a written report (each, an "Annual Report", the findings of which shall be summarized by the Chair of the Committee to the Board in public session, which annual written report shall include the following: (a) A summary of the Committee's proceedings and activities for the preceding year, and (b) A statement indicating whether the District is in compliance with the requirements of Article XIII A, Section 1(b)(3) of the California Constitution.
