

Maypearl High School Grading Guidelines 2026-2027

Assignment Types	• Daily: (Averaged) 20% of the overall grade* • Quiz: (Averaged) 30% of the overall grade* • Major: (Averaged) 50% of the overall grade* *Grades must reflect academic mastery. Non-academic factors such as behavior, participation, supplies, attendance, or extra credit unrelated to learning standards should not be used as grading measures.
Minimum Number of Grades	• 10 total grades (minimum) • 3 major grades • Teachers should be posting at least 2 grades per week. •  The 2 grades must be 2 different assignments. • At least 1 major grade should be posted before progress reports.
Late Work	• Any assignment not turned in on the due date (other than because of an absence), will be taken up to 3 days after an M (missing) is posted to the gradebook for a maximum grade of 70. • Assignments turned in after that grace period will no longer be eligible to receive a 70. • No late work will be accepted within the last 5 days of the school year
Grade Redemption	• A student may need to attend a tutorial opportunity (outside of class time) at the teacher's discretion and convenience in order to be eligible for a grade redemption. • Students will be allowed to demonstrate proficiency of learning objectives by means of a teacher-led reteach activity, retest, or test corrections completed in class only (Redemption method & scheduling at teacher's discretion) for a maximum grade of 70. • A student may have only one redo attempt per assignment grade. No late work should be allowed for a grade redemption. • It is the responsibility of the student/parent to initiate this process within 5 school days of the grade being entered into the gradebook.
Academic Dishonesty	• Academic dishonesty includes cheating or copying the work of another student, plagiarism, , (including the unauthorized use of artificial intelligence (AI) such as ChatGPT), and unauthorized communication between students during an examination. • Evidence may come from written materials, observation, and/or information from students. • The determination that a student has engaged in academic dishonesty shall be based on the judgment of the classroom teacher or other supervising professional employee and the principal. • Students found to have engaged in academic dishonesty will receive a zero on the assignment/assessment involved in the incident.

Make Up Work Due to Absences	• Number of days missed + 1 to turn in makeup work. Ex: Absent on Monday, student has Tuesday and Wednesday to complete the work, and work is due at the beginning of class on Thursday. Extra time at teacher discretion • Assignments/tests assigned before the absence(s) and turned in or taken the day of the absence: The student will take the assessment or turn in the work the day they return. • Assignments and tests assigned while a student is absent will be treated as if the work was assigned the day they returned. They will have the number of days + 1 to complete the work. • Multi-day assignments (that were assigned when the student was present) should be turned in on the original due date, or the day the student returns. • It is the student's responsibility to obtain, complete and submit the missed work in the time allotted. Any assignment not turned in within the allotted time falls in the late work guidelines. A grade of zero will be recorded for any assignment not made up within the allotted time, unless otherwise discussed with the teacher.
Absences due to school sponsored Extracurricular activities	• Assignments given and assessments announced when the student is present should be turned in or taken the day the student returns. • Assignments given and assessments announced while the student is absent will receive one additional day. EX: Student misses on Tuesday and work is assigned, the student will be "assigned" the work on Wednesday and be expected to turn it in on Thursday. Even when assignments are previously known about and visible online, if an assignment is not given until Tuesday, the extra time will apply. • Multi-day assignments (that were assigned when the student was present) should be turned in on the original due date, or the day the student returns.
Zeros	• For any zero in the gradebook, teachers will include a comment or legend icon explaining the reason for the zero.
Semester Exam Exemptions	• Exemptions must have a class average of 90 or higher, cumulative attendance of 95%, zero cases of academic dishonesty this school year, no unexcused absences and no more than 3 tardies for the semester. If a student has served days in DAEP, OSS or ISS they will NOT be exempt for any exams. Each teacher has the discretion of saying that a student will NOT be exempt in their class and must take the exam, even if the exemption guidelines are met. The two college days do not count against the student in terms of exemptions as long as the proper procedures have been followed by the student. Classification exemptions: Fr. 1 exam, Soph 2 exams, Jr. 3 exams, Sr. 4 exams
