June 14, 2026 - Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pastor's Message

My dear parishioners,

First of all, we greet all our children and families a happy summer vacation. The school year has ended, and after months of hard work, studying, projects, and activities, our students truly deserve time to rest and enjoy. Summer is a gift. It is a time to relax, spend time with family, discover new interests, and continue learning outside the classroom.

To our young people, enjoy your vacation, but remember to keep God at the center of your summer. Continue to pray, attend Mass, help your parents at home, and do good to others. Growth in faith should never take a vacation.

The theme of this Sunday's readings is simple yet very important: God loves us.

Sometimes in life, especially during trials, disappointments, sickness, or moments of loneliness, we may ask ourselves: Does God really care for me? Does He truly love me?

The readings this weekend answer with a clear and resounding, yes.

In the First Reading from the Book of Exodus, God reminds His people how He rescued them from slavery in Egypt: "You have seen for yourselves how I treated the Egyptians and how I bore you up on eagle's wings and brought you here to myself." God's saving action was a sign of His love. He protected His people, guided them, and remained faithful even when they were weak and ungrateful.

The same is true in our lives. When we look back, many of us can see moments when God carried us through difficulties, protected us from harm, or opened doors we never expected. Often, we realize only later that God was quietly working in our lives.

In the Second Reading, St. Paul gives one of the strongest affirmations of God's love: "God proves His love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us." God does not wait for us to become perfect before loving us. He loves us even with our weaknesses, failures, and sins. His love comes first.

Many people think, I will return to God when my life is better. But God says, Come to me now. His mercy is greater than our mistakes.

In the Gospel, Jesus shows the face of God's compassion. Seeing the crowds, He was moved with pity because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd. Jesus saw their suffering, confusion, and burdens.

The same Jesus still sees us today. He sees parents worried about their children, people struggling financially, those grieving the loss of loved ones, those carrying illness, loneliness, or uncertainty. And He continues to look upon us with compassion.

God's love is not merely an idea. It is real. It comforts, forgives, guides, and strengthens.

As we continue this summer season, perhaps this is also an invitation to ask ourselves: How do I respond to God's love? Do I make time for prayer? Do I show love and patience to my family? Do I help those in need? Do others experience God's kindness through me?

May we never doubt that we are loved by God. And because we are loved, may we also become instruments of His love to others.

Enjoy the blessings of summer, stay safe, and continue walking with the Lord.

With my prayers,
Fr. Roy

MASS INTENTIONS

As a community of faith, we are called to support one another through prayer and the celebration of the Holy Mass. We encourage you to offer Masses for a variety of special intentions, including:

For the Sick: Remember your loved ones who are suffering in body, mind, or spirit. Lift them up in prayer through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

For the Souls of the Departed: Especially on the anniversaries of death, offer Masses for the eternal repose of those who have gone before us.

In Thanksgiving: Give thanks to God for the graces and blessings you have received, whether they be in times of joy, healing, or guidance.

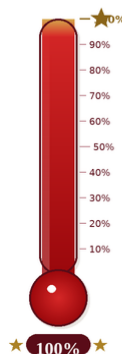

For Personal or Family Intentions: If you or a family member are facing a particular need or challenge, let the Eucharistic sacrifice be a source of grace and strength.

Offering Masses is a powerful way to unite our intentions with the love and sacrifice of Christ. Please consider this opportunity to deepen your connection to God's mercy and love. To arrange for a Mass offering, please contact the Parish Office.

May God bless you all abundantly.
