Ignite Passion

The Ignite Passion Award recognizes individuals or groups that have demonstrated exceptional commitment and efforts in fostering passion and enthusiasm within Oldham County Schools. Recipients of the Ignite Passion Award are not merely achievers; they are catalysts for positive change, transforming the atmosphere and culture within their school or within the school district. These individuals or groups possess a unique ability to ignite the flames of inspiration within students, staff, families, or the community, encouraging others to pursue excellence and embrace their own passions.

Buckner High School – Ruthie Parrot

Ruthie Parrott embodies the "No Excuses—Find a Way" mindset, approaching each day with purpose and an unwavering belief in what students and teachers can achieve. She consistently seeks out opportunities for success, designing innovative, engaging strategies that meet students where they are and move them forward with confidence.

Through her work as an instructional coach, Ruthie empowers teachers to refine their practice, think creatively, and respond to student needs with intention and flexibility. Her support goes beyond guidance—she inspires a culture of growth, collaboration, and possibility. Classrooms become more dynamic, instruction becomes more meaningful, and students are given greater access to success because of her influence.

Ruthie's impact is felt throughout the school community. She brings energy, encouragement, and a solution-oriented perspective that motivates others to push past challenges and strive for excellence. By championing both students and staff, she helps create an environment where enthusiasm for learning thrives and where everyone is encouraged to reach their fullest potential.
