Alview 192; Dairyland 208 Total District: 400

- The state cafeteria review took place last Monday, 5/18. The reviewer met with our kitchen staff, reviewed production records, menus, and observed meal serving procedures. We passed with great feedback.
- The Dairyland Talent Show took place last Thursday. There were singing, dancing, music and comedy acts. It was great to see a variety of student talent.
- Our track and field days went very well at both campuses. Unfortunately, in the tug of war contest, 8th grade beat the staff. At Alview, students had a great day—they especially enjoyed the bucket brigade.
- The last educational partner meeting was held this morning at Alview with the classified staff. All groups were in agreement with our LCAP plans for 2026-27.
- The governor announced a “Super-COLA” in the May revise. Instead of 2.87%, we’ll be receiving a 4.31% increase to the LCFF. This increase is intended to offset the cost increased pregnancy leave of 14 weeks.
