

LATIN

COMPETENCIES AND INDICATORS

Foundational Knowledge

Retains and applies content from previous units, demonstrating level-appropriate understanding of the target language.

Foundational Skills

Uses previously learned grammatical structures, vocabulary, and pronunciation appropriately.

Communication

Communicates effectively in the target language in order to function in a variety of situations and for multiple purposes.

Interpretive Reading (Functions)

Identifies main ideas, topics, and specific information in a variety of written materials.

Writing (Functions)

Writes narrative and expository/informational compositions in the target language.

Forms (Accuracy)

Identifies and uses target structures and expressions, including grammar and vocabulary, appropriately.

Culture, Connections, and Comparisons

Connects with other disciplines, make comparisons to develop insight into the nature of language and culture, and interact with cultural competence and understanding.

Culture

Investigates, explains, and reflects on the relationship between practices/products and perspectives of the cultures studied.

Connections

Builds, reinforces, and expands knowledge of other disciplines while studying Classical languages and cultures.

Comparisons

Investigates, explains, and reflects on the nature of language and culture through comparisons with their own.