Sec. 1. RATIONALE

Raul Yzaguirre Schools for Success ("RYSS") employees are expected to avoid apparent or actual conflicts of interest, favoritism, or bias in their workplace relationships. Consensual romantic relationships can give rise to such realities or perceptions and are thus potentially exploitative, especially when they involve supervisor/subordinate relationships. In addition, such relationships can and often do create an uncomfortable work or educational environment for students and staff.

Sec. 2. DEFINITION OF ROMANTIC RELATIONSHIPS

A "romantic relationships" is one that involves or is a prelude to sexual intimacy. A romantic relationship may be manifest through, but is not limited to, one or more of the following workplace behaviors: a pattern of exclusivity between two persons; consensual physical touching that implies a romantic intention or desire; the sharing of personal information appropriate for a romantic relationship but beyond the boundaries of a professional workplace relationship; actual physical intimacy; written communications or other actions that demonstrate or imply a romantic interest.

Sec. 3. RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN EMPLOYEES AND STUDENTS

Employees shall never form romantic relationships with students. Any sexual relationship between a student and an employee is prohibited and unlawful, even if consensual.

Sec. 4. ROMANTIC RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN EMPLOYEES

Unless otherwise approved by the Superintendent, if two employees marry, become relatives of each other or enter into an intimate relationship, they should not remain in a professional supervisory relationship. RYSS will, at its discretion, attempt to identify other available positions, and allow one or both of such employees to apply for reassignment, or RYSS may reassign the employees at its discretion. If no alternate position is available, RYSS may terminate either of the employees at its discretion.

This policy is not intended to prohibit romantic or outside relationships among peers or colleagues; however, employees involved in such relationships are cautioned to avoid situations that may contribute to an uncomfortable work or educational environment for other employees or students.

Sec. 5. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

In the event that consensual romantic relationships exist or begin to develop between an employee and supervisor, the supervisor is charged with the responsibility of notifying his or her immediate supervisor of the relationship. The reporting supervisor shall cooperate in making appropriate workplace arrangements and adjustments, which may include but are not limited to reassignments of duties, departments and/or locations.
