

Anchor of the Soul

FRIDAY JUNE 12

5:00-7:30PM | DOWNTOWN BRANCH

Join PPL for a screening of the 1994 documentary, Anchor of the Soul, a documentary that explores the history of Black Mainers through the lens of two churches – the Abyssinian Church & the Green Memorial A.M.E. Church – that serve(d) as community hubs throughout Portland's history. The documentary was directed by Shoshana Hoose, who will be in the audience to provide some background on what went into making the film. Doors open 4:30.

PORTLANDLIBRARY.ORG/EVENTS

Permanent Commission
RACIAL, INDIGENOUS
& TRIBAL POPULATIONS

