Honors English 12 Novel
1984	by George Orwell

- Students in honors English 12 courses will be required to complete a 4-7 page research paper in MLA format based on one of the following prompts.
- Students are required to find and use 3 peer reviewed articles as secondary sources and include a Works Cited page in proper MLA format.

Prompt 1: In many plays or novels, the cultural, physical, or geographical surroundings shape psychological or moral traits in a character. Write a well-organized and well developed research paper in which you analyze how surroundings affect this character and illuminate a theme of the novel.

Prompt 2: Choose a character from the novel who responds in some significant way to justice or injustice. Then write a well-organized and well developed research paper in which you analyze the character's understanding of justice, the degree to which the character's search for justice is successful, and the significance of this search as it relates to a theme in the novel.

Prompt 3: Morally ambiguous characters – characters whose behavior discourages readers from identifying them as purely evil or purely good – are at the heart of many works of literature. Choose a character from the novel who is morally ambiguous and plays a pivotal role in the novel. Then write a well-organized and well developed research paper in which you explain how the character is seen as morally ambiguous and why his or her moral ambiguity is significant to a theme in the novel.

Dual English students need to see Ms. Matthews about a modified reading assignment before the end of the spring semester! :)
