Opportunities & Info

Happy final day of the school year, Vikings! Be on the lookout for Registration and New Student Orientation information in August. We'll see you back on Thursday, August 20th. Have a beautiful and restful summer!

Wanting your off campus lunch pass in the Fall? As a reminder, you need to have 18 or below period absences by the last day of summer school. If you need to clear attendance obligations you still have some opportunities this Thursday and Friday. Stop by your House office to sign up if needed.

Seniors, senior panoramic pictures have arrived! Please go to the Vikes Inn for pickup!

Seniors—if you have not picked up your prom pictures, please see Ms Bravo or Ms Garrett in M House(6/10)

Attention Juniors! Now that AP Season is over, do you want to get ahead on your college applications this summer? Don't miss the College Essay Writing Online Workshop, hosted by the Ed Foundation and led by the Magnificent Mr. Koehler. In this one-week online Zoom workshop, you'll learn how to write a compelling personal statement, explore prompts, workshop your writing in a small group, and finish the week with a solid draft of your college supplementals. Don't wait until fall—start now and take the stress out of senior year! Workshop run every week starting June 15th to July 31st. Visit smedfoundation.org to register now or swing by D206 with questions. Spots are limited, so don't miss your chance to snag a spot! (6/10)

Yearbooks are here! They're available for pickup or purchase at lunch in the Textbook Office or the Vikes Inn. (6/10)

Lose an item on campus? Please check the Lost and Found located in the Textbook room before it's too late! Any item not claimed by the last day of school will be donated! (6/10)
