Summer Reading

Wall Intermediate School Parents and Guardians,

Wall Intermediate School is thrilled to introduce our summer reading initiative for students entering grades six through eight. This is a wonderful opportunity to unwind at the beach while exploring new adventures through reading. Research shows that students who engage in regular reading during the summer return to school in September with an average improvement equivalent to one month of learning. This is reflected in enhanced reading levels, better reading skills, and an expanded vocabulary. Conversely, students who do not participate in summer reading often face what is commonly referred to as the “summer slide,” resulting in a decline in their learning. At Wall Intermediate School, we provide the perfect blend of choice and challenge for our students.

We encourage all students to read as many books as they can this summer. They are free to choose any book they like.

Additionally, students are invited to undertake a choice project related to their summer reading. While these projects are optional, completing one with effort and originality, without any plagiarism or AI assistance, will earn students a bonus quiz grade of 100.

All projects are due on the first day of class. Teachers will set up an assignment in Google Classroom for project submissions, and students must submit their work by this deadline. No projects will be accepted after the first day of class. Furthermore, teachers will work with their students on that first day to submit their projects to TurnItIn, a tool that verifies authenticity and checks for plagiarism. Any project that contains plagiarism or AI-generated content will not receive the bonus quiz grade.
