FORT MORGAN HIGH SCHOOL

Mission & Vision

To create an inclusive environment that inspires creative thinking, high achievement, and build skills for life after graduation.

Unlocking potential and empowering students to become caring and responsible citizens who are lifelong learners who lead purposeful lives

Community

The Morgan County School District is located ninety minutes northeast of the Denver area and serves approximately 3,400 students. Although a rural community, FMHS is the largest high school in northeast Colorado with over 900 students.

Students have the opportunity to enroll in dual credit courses through a partnership with Morgan Community College. There is a strong agricultural base and high cultural diversity. Demographically, FMHS has a population that is nearly 70% Hispanic and also includes refugee students who have immigrated to the Fort Morgan area in recent years.

Enrollment

There are over 925 students enrolled at Fort Morgan High School, with a senior class size of approximately 230 for the 2026-2027 academic year.
