

Notice of Data Event

Grandview School District (“GSD”) is providing notice of an event that may involve certain personal information. This notice provides information about the event, our response, and resources available to individuals to help protect their information, should they feel it appropriate to do so.

What Happened? GSD recently concluded its investigation of a cyber event involving unauthorized activity occurring on certain district computer systems. Upon first discovering the event in October 2024, we took steps to secure our systems and completed an investigation to confirm the nature and scope of the unauthorized activity. The investigation determined that an unknown actor gained access to certain GSD computer systems between September 28, 2024 and October 8, 2024 and was able to view or download certain data.

GSD completed a diligent and comprehensive review of the affected systems to determine the precise nature of the information that was impacted, as well as the identity of the individuals to whom the information relates. That process recently concluded, and GSD is notifying individuals based on the results of this review.

What Information Was Involved? The type of personal information stored on the impacted systems varies by individual but may include the following: name, Social Security number, date of birth, driver or state license number, passport number, username & password, financial account information, health related information, and medical information.

What We Are Doing. The confidentiality, privacy, and security of information in our care are among our highest priorities. Upon becoming aware of the event, we moved quickly to investigate and respond, assess and further strengthen the security of its systems and computer environment, and notify potentially affected individuals.

What You Can Do. We encourage individuals to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing account statements and credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Any suspicious activity should be promptly reported to the appropriate bank, credit card company, or other applicable institution. Additional information and resources are included in the below Steps Individuals Can Take To Protect Personal Information.

For More Information. Please contact our dedicated assistance line at 1-877-520-3857, available Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time, excluding major U.S. holidays. You may also write to us at the following address: 913 W 2nd St., Grandview, WA 98930. Attention: Cybersecurity Department.

STEPS INDIVIDUALS CAN TAKE TO PROTECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also contact directly the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a "credit freeze" on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer's express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer's name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

Consumers may further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps they can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or their state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. Consumers can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. Consumers have the right to file a police report if they ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, consumers will likely need to provide some proof that they have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and the relevant state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.
