International Community School News

Hello ICS Families!

Our Key Club hosted a talent show this week. It was amazing to see the wide variety of musical talents our students have. There were some small groups, but many individual students. It takes such courage and confidence to perform in front of peers. I was so impressed and grateful that our students are already exhibiting some critical attributes of the International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme Learner Profile. In this case, the trait “Risk-Taker” was on display. These courageous students were willing to take calculated risks, explore new challenges, and embrace uncertainty.

Have a wonderful weekend with your families,

Jacob
