

Our Story

John Glenn Middle School is committed to creating a supportive, engaging, and inclusive learning community for students and families. We thrive on developing strong, positive partnerships with families as we strive to develop and empower lifelong learners who are college and career ready. We're focused on developing students into leaders who use their voices to make positive change in their school and community. Our staff provide rigorous academic opportunities for students and meet their social/emotional needs. Students are supported, challenged, valued, and celebrated every day.
