Textual Analysis (10 points)	Shows a deep understanding of the text.	Shows a relatively strong understanding of the text.	Shows some understanding of the text, though several points seem confused.	Not clear whether the maker of this one-pager read the text or participated in the activities in class.
Required Elements (10 points)	Every required element is included. Additional elements may also have been added	Almost every required element is on the one-pager.	Several key elements are missing. The one-pager is somewhat scattered.	Very few of the required elements are present.
Thoroughness (10 points)	This piece is amazing in its attention to detail and creativity/ originality.	While this one-pager is fairly thorough, some sections gloss the surface and creativity/ originality is mostly present.	There is not much depth, detail, and creativity/ originality present in the various sections	This one-pager barely shows an understanding of the text. Very little detail, depth, and creativity/ originality.

Examples- these are not perfect examples; however, they cover much of what is required.

"Revenge kept me alive; I dare not die, and leave my adversary in being alone." "But it is even so; the fallen angel becomes a malignant devil. Yet even that enemy of God and man had friends."

ISOLATION

Many times people can feel alone when sad. Being alone can make you sad but there always someone that's there for you forever.

Sometimes people can be mad about something and feel the need to get back at them. Jealousy can make you do terrible things.

"Every night I was oppressed by a slow fever, and I became nervous to a most painful degree, the fall of a leaf startled me, and I shunned my fellow creatures as if I had been guilty of a crime."

ISOLATION Victor is a very ambitious, hardworking, and brilliant scientist. He is obsessed with reanimation. This passion of his has ruined his life. He created a living corpse created by that caused Victor, is very lots of intelligent and damage sensitive. The creature in his is always alone and life. feels abandoned by his creator. The monster wanted someone like him that he could be happy with.

ISOLATION The creature was isolated because of his appearance. Everyone was frightened by him and avoided him. Victor was never around to be like a father or a creator to him. He wasn't a leader to help him. He was alone.

REVENGE The creature was out for revenge when Victor destroyed his mate. He was going to get back at him by killing Elizabeth, Victor's loved one. The creature was jealous of what Victor had and furious that Victor never did anything as a father and didn't influence.

"From a gentle light shone over the landscape and gave me a sensation of bliss. I started up and beheld a radiant form (the form among the trees)." (Shelley 148)

The creature was consumed by the things he was seeing when he first was "born". He was overwhelmed by his senses and this quote clearly shows how he was becoming increasingly but helpless.

"I had been a creature during the night to steal a part of their store for my own consumption, but when I found that in doing this I inflicted pain on the cottagers I withdrew." (Shelley 149)

The creature was only surviving on berries and nuts but his hunger drove him to be so desperate that he stole from the cottagers. This quote shows how he was going to start murdering.

"I noticed the looks of my friends. It was one which could not fail to impress itself deeply on my mind." (Shelley 150)

The creature cared deeply about the cottagers. It was a one-sided relationship but hearing about the cottagers only made him care about them more.

"And was not I? of my creation and creator I was infinitely greater, but I dwelt in solitude, no name, no friends, no help of others." (Shelley 150)

The creature begins to question why he is not what he is. He feels what pain is and what isolation feels like. He begins to hate Victor because he knows he is not a human and he is not a creature.

"He dashed me to the ground and struck me violently with a stick. I could have torn him limb from limb... Outraged by pain and anguish, I quit the cottage" (Shelley 151)

The creature liked everything to meet who he hoped to be his new family. He was rejected. This was the start of his pain and anger.

The pain was too much for the creature to control. That pain turned into anger. Anger towards all mankind for how they treated him. His anger destroyed his remorse and sparked his thirst for killing.

"For the first time feelings of revenge and hatred filled my bosom, and I did not strive to control them, but allowing myself to be borne away by the stream, I bent my mind towards injury and death" (Shelley 152)
