Seniors must have a minimum of 150 verified and documented hours.

LEADERSHIP: Clear evidence of leadership (e.g. directing, managing, supervising, controlling a group of people or an organization) for a significant period of time (e.g. a semester, a summer) is required. Attendance at leadership seminars and/or conferences is not sufficient to satisfy the leadership requirement. Starting a club or activity on campus will only count as leadership if the club has been an active club for 3 semesters at time of your NHS application.

Original signed document(s) from your adult supervisor describing your duties, how well you fulfilled them, and how long you have served are required. Letters from your parents, guardians or close relatives will not be accepted.

NOTE: Positions claimed for leadership cannot also be cited as service hours if the time periods stated are identical. The aforementioned would be considered 'double dipping'.
