The Lake County Office of Education allocates Prop 28 funding to its nine preschool classrooms and two alternative education sites: Lloyd P. Hance Community School, serving expelled youth, and Clearlake Creativity School, supporting students with extreme behaviors. As our student enrollment is below 500, the associated Prop 28 funding does not necessitate the hiring of dedicated arts education personnel. However, in 2025-26 part-time staff was hired to implement the Music Together program in our preschools while all other Prop 28 resources for Hance and CCS was allocated towards art and music educational supplies and the implementation of special arts-related projects.
