POWERBUFF

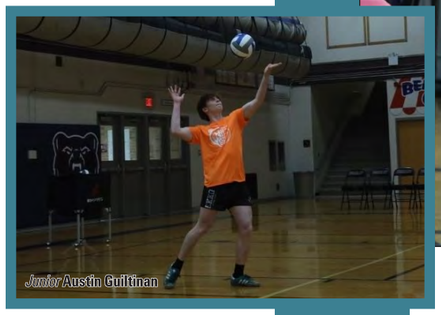

On march 18th, junior and senior boys met in the west gym for a friendly game of volleyball. “It was fun to play volleyball with the rest of my senior class. The energy in the west gym was great and it was a good way to bring our class closer together,” mentioned senior Owen Danaher.

They played best of three matches. The juniors won the first match, but the seniors fought hard and came back to win the second. In the end the juniors came out on top with a final set score of 21-17. “Powerbuff was a super fun and competitive experience and it felt great to win against the seniors. Bringing home that W made the whole experience unforgettable.” claimed junior Henry Samson.

In the week before the game, the boys practiced from 7:30-9:00 pm in the east gym. “We spent time working on our serves, hits, and volleys. Practice was helpful because I got to play before the actual game,” voiced senior Benjamin Bullock.

PEP ASSEMBLY

On March 20th, BHS held their annual Spring pep assembly. The spring sports were honored when they ran a lap around the gym in front of the crowd with their teams and signs.

The dance team preformed a new routine for the school. “Dancing at the pep assembly was fun because everybody got to see what we have been working so hard on behind closed doors. Hearing the whole gym cheer for us during our transitions was an amazing feeling,” mentioned junior Zoe Gahm.

Students from every grade participated in a series of chaotic and fast-paced games, including a high-stakes tournament of musical chairs, a school-wide rock-paper-scissors showdown, and a fiercely contested tug-of-war match that brought the entire crowd to their feet. “Tug of war was fun because we all tried our best and in the end we all fell on top of each other which added to the chaos and fun,” exclaimed junior Keira Olson.

HADES TOWN

SPRING MUSICAL

Due to the auditorium being under construction, the musical took place at The Bonstelle Playhouse from April 24th to April 26th. The cast performed Hadestown which follows young lovers Orpheus and Eurydice, and the older couple Hades and Persephone. The cast and crew had over 60 people working to put the musical together. This year the crew made a massive set of the underground. "I think working on this musical in particular was especially challenging as we battled with space availability and auditorium renovation, but this group had a special connection, and a special resilience that made the show stronger and more remarking when finished. In the end it was nice to watch it all come together and I am proud of how it turned out," exclaimed junior Hannah Conti.

WHEN IN ROME PROM

Prom was held on May 14th at The Mint. It started at 7:00 pm with drinks, dinner, and desert. "The butter cakes were the best part. It was cake with ice cream and fudge," exclaimed junior Brigette Krauskoff. The theme of the dance was 'When in Rome'. The venue was decorated in burgundy, gold, and cream colors. "I think that the prom was decorated properly, not shoving it in your face but you always had the feeling of being in Rome," mentioned senior Thomas Shelp.

HAT DECORATION

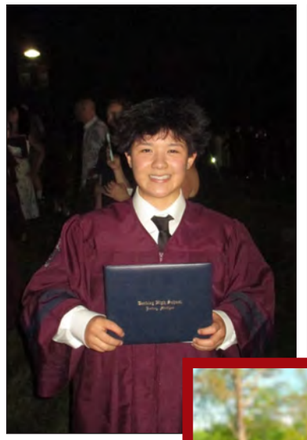

Every graduating student wears a graduation cap, which they are invited to personalize. Most choose to decorate theirs with an inspiring quote, the logo of their future university, or a design that holds personal significance. “I decided to maek my grad cap MSU because that is where I am headed in the fall,” shares senior Sloan Scully.

GRADUATION

Graduation took place Thursday June 4th. The seniors were celebrated for completing this chapter of their life and for starting new ones. There were many speakers including administers like Mr. Meloche and Mr. Francis. Students also had an opportunity to speak. Speakers included seniors Madeline Collins, Molly Frankel, Laila Miller, Jordan Coleman and Heiress Brame.

On top of their diplomas the seniors also received a lifetime event pass for all Berkley sports games. This allows the former students to get into any game for free, this fosters support from the alumni to the future students.
