Shrek The Musical Jr.

Summary

Our story begins with the tale of a little ogre named Shrek. Papa and Mama Ogre sit Shrek down and have a coming-of-age talk with their son. As the years pass, Shrek finds contentment living alone in a swamp on the edge of the kingdom of Duloc. Suddenly, The Captain of the Guards appears, leading a large group of Fairy Tale Creatures into the swamp, including Pinocchio, the Big Bad Wolf, the Three Little Pigs, the Wicked Witch, Peter Pan, the Ugly Duckling and the Three Bears. Shrek now finds his once private swamp teeming with the new inhabitants and angrily sets off to confront the leader of Duloc about the injustice.

As Shrek makes his way through a dense forest, he encounters Donkey and reluctantly agrees to let Donkey be his guide. Meanwhile, in Duloc, Lord Farquadd appears, questioning the captive Gingy as to the whereabouts of an available princess that Farquaad could marry in order to become king. Threatened with torture, Gingy relinquishes the information that there is a princess in a tower that is guarded by a dragon. Afterwards, Shrek and Donkey arrive. Shrek demands the swamp be rightfully returned to him and, seizing an opportunity, Farquaad agrees to find a new home for the Fairy Tale Creatures if Shrek retrieves the princess for him.

High in her tower, Young Fiona dreams of being rescued by a handsome prince and living the idyllic fairy tale dream. The years pass, and Fiona grows more anxious day after day, nervous that the stories she's read have misled her. Despite her frustrations, she remains hopeful.

Shrek and Donkey arrive at Fiona's tower. Shrek climbs the tower while she excitedly prepares for the arrival of her prince. Cornered in the dungeon, four imprisoned Knights warn Donkey that he may wind up like them. The Dragon, falls madly in love with Donkey and spares his life. Fiona finally gets her storybook adventure as the trio escapes the dragon.

Shrek reveals to Fiona that he is actually an ogre and has rescued her for Lord Farquaad. As the sun sets, Fiona demands to set up camp and disappears into a cave for the duration of the night. The next morning, Fiona is chipper and highly caffeinated. The group continues their journey, and Shrek and Fiona bond over their horrible lives thus far. Donkey is convinced that their relationship is actually a budding romance.

Having reached Duloc, Fiona postpones meeting Lord Farquaad for one more night. Donkey stumbles into the barn and discovers Fiona's secret. Shrek, who has worked up the courage to tell Fiona how he feels about her, overhears only the last part of Fiona's conversation with Donkey and thinks she is talking about him.

The next morning, Shrek admits to Fiona that he heard everything she said. Fiona now thinks that he knows her secret and is unable to love her because of it. Just then, Lord Farquaad arrives to claim Fiona. He hands over the deed to Shrek's swamp and makes plans to marry Fiona that night. Hurt, Fiona accepts and leaves with him. Donkey pleads with Shrek to try to win back Fiona, and all the Fairy Tale Creatures agree that Shrek must be proud of who he is rather than ashamed by it. With a sense of empowerment and a plan of action, the group decides to return to Duloc.

Just as the Bishop is about to marry Fiona and Lord Farquaad, Shrek and the Fairy Tale Creatures burst in. Shrek professes his love for Fiona, and the Fairy Tale Creatures reveal that Lord Farquaad's father is a grumpy Dwarf. The discovery that Farquaad is actually a "freak," like the Fairy Tale Creatures he condemned, shocks and surprises everyone.

Shrek and Fiona finally share "true love's kiss" and, although the spell is broken, Fiona doesn't turn back into a human. Shrek convinces her that she is beautiful just as she is, and everyone celebrates their individuality.

The Crew

One of the most important and often unrecognized members of the production are the Stage Crew and Set Designers. The crew's attentiveness and vigilance to the scene, prop, sound, and lighting ensures a smooth performance. Additionally, without the vision and creativity of the set painters, the stage would be an austere place.

Memorable Moments from our 8th graders

“A memorable moment from Drama club I have was when we made our own dances with a song that a director gave us. At the end, when a group did Freak Flag, we all ended up singing together, and it was just so fun to sing. It was good, and it was even better because I was with all the people that make me happy.”

-Rae

“Even though 2025-2026 is my first year joining Drama Club, something that happened recently is when we were building Shrek's home, and it wasn't coming out the way Mrs. Horton wanted it to. She kinda crashed out a little, (more like a lot). It was funny and will be remembered from my first year.”

-Zillay

“One of my favorite memories from Drama Club is from when I was in 6th grade during my first year of Drama Club. On opening night during bows, I remember being really excited and happy. When the curtain went down, everybody was cheering and jumping around, and that was really awesome for me since it was my first show!!”

Memorable Moments

from our 8th graders

“My first ever time entering the cafeteria with a group of people I would spend the next three years with was scary. I remember being called up to the stage, nervous, and my heart racing in my ears. I remember worrying that the directors would hear my pulse through my voice as I sang my little 6th grade heart out. Suddenly, I was done. I had forgotten how I was going to sing but had pulled it off. Everyone was clapping and my friend Elijah, who I hadn't talked to in years yelled, ""That's my neighbor!" Right in that moment, I knew this club would be my place.”

-Gray

“A memorable moment for me was in 7th grade when I had to come to rehearsals early for wig prep and me and the other girls with wigs and the costume girls would just joke around and have fun before every one else came. We would just talk and practice songs and especially before performances we would help each other not stress out, and it was really fun and I always looked forward to it.”

-Ava

“I loved working with everyone back stage last year.”

-Charlie

“A moment that is very memorable to me is after everyday getting to see the show.”

Memorable Moments from our 8th graders

“My favorite memorable moment in Drama Club is from seventh grade on the morning of the first assembly. I had gotten an email to go to the cafeteria right away and I was scared I got cut from the show, but I was actually told that I would be filling in for the role of Jane since Lexie was sick. It was a little terrifying but also so fun and so exciting. I got to practice beforehand with Kiley, Elena, Gray, and Frank, and everyone was so supportive and helpful. I had a great time rehearsing the scene with everyone.”

-Charlotte

“Over the past 3 years in Drama Club, one memory really sticks out to me. This year I was cast as Shrek, and when I saw the cast list, I was so proud of myself. Since I've started with the TOIS Drama Club I've been working on my confidence, performance, and my overall well being, so when I got cast you could only imagine how happy I was. Drama Club will always have a special place in my heart, and I'm so grateful to have had this opportunity.”

-Elizabeth

“A memorable moment I've had throughout this experience was from last year during Descendants. The cast was running "Be Our Guest," and Morgan, Luke and I weren't in that number so while they kept rehearsing, we were backstage playing random games like, chopsticks and I spy while trying to be quiet and entertain ourselves.”

-Amani

Memorable Moments

from our 8th graders

“A memorable moment in Drama Club was in 6th grade (Mean Girls) when all of the dance team members got together and did the ribbon dancing together, which we mainly choreographed ourselves!!!!!!”

-Radhika

“One of my memorable moments from Drama Club was when it was Mean Girls. On the first night we were singing Don't Stop believing and at the end I said "Don't stop believing" instead of 'Don't stop.'”

-Jude

“One memory I have from Drama Club was from last year and I found out that I was Carlos. I was really happy because this was the role that I had wanted. Also last year was my first year doing cast so I was really surprised that I got a lead role.”

-Frank
