

Summer Reading for Rising Third Graders

I am excited to enjoy some free reading time over the summer.

I hope you are too! Most of all, pick something that you'll have fun reading!

Please read at least two books! Then, you will share about one:

1. Title and Author (You can bring the book, write it or share a creative idea)
2. Main idea/gist: "The book is mostly about..." (optional prop to help)
3. Recommendation: "You [should/not] read this book because..."

You may choose your own title, or here are a few to get you started.

Knights vs. Dinosaurs, by Matt Phelan

Each Kindness, by Jacqueline Woodson

Encyclopedia Brown, Boy Detective, by Donald J. Sobol

Bad Guys, by Aaron Blabey

Beatrice Zinker, Upside Down Thinker, by Shelley Johannes

Boy Called Bat, by Elana K Arnold

Amelia Earhart and the Flying Chariot, by Steve Sheinkin

Extraordinary, by Miriam S Franklin

The Penderwicks, by Jeanne Birdsall

Cam Jansen, by David Adler

Muggie Maggie, by Beverly Cleary

Once Upon a Tim, by Stuart Gibbs

Ways to Make Sunshine, by Renee Watson

Matilda or Fantastic Mr. Fox, by Roald Dahl

Orris & Timble, by Kate DiCamillo

Just So Stories, by Rudyard Kipling

Big Nate, by Lincoln Pierce

Poppy, by Avi

Remember to have fun reading (try reading in unusual places, to or with someone- even a pet)! I can't wait to hear about your reading adventures as we get to know each other better in August!! Have a great summer!
