

Earn Your WIN® Work Readiness Credential

What is WIN®?

WIN® is a skills-based assessment used by employers, schools, and colleges to measure essential workplace skills. Earning a WIN Credential shows that you have the academic and reasoning skills needed to succeed on the job.

What's on the WIN® Test?

The test includes 3 key parts:

- Mathematical Reasoning – Solving real-world workplace math problems
- Reading for Information – Understanding and using written material
- Data Analysis – Interpreting charts, graphs, and workplace data

✔ All tests are FREE! ✔ You'll receive a digital certificate after completing all 3 parts.

Why Take the WIN® Assessment?

- ✔ Gain a statewide-recognized credential
- ✔ Show employers you're ready to work
- ✔ Improve your resume and job options
- ✔ Prepare for success in the modern workplace

Many employers in South Carolina use WIN scores when hiring!

Pro Tip: You must complete all three assessments to earn your credential. Prepare ahead and arrive on time to your scheduled appointment!

Achievement Levels

Your WIN Credential level is based on your lowest score among the three assessments. Here's how each level relates to job opportunities in the U.S.:

Level	% of U.S. Jobs You Qualify For	Minimum Score (per test)
Level 2	35% of jobs	Score 2 or higher on all three assessments.
Level 3	59% of jobs	Score 3 or higher on all three assessments.
Level 4	83% of jobs	Score 4 or higher on all three assessments.
Level 5	99.9% of jobs	Score 5 or higher on all three assessments.

➔ The higher your level, the more career paths you'll be eligible for!
