June 28, 2026 - Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pastor's Message

My dear parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

As I reflect on this weekend, I also realize that I am completing my second year as your pastor. I arrived here on July 1, 2024, and the past two years have been a time of blessings, challenges, and growth.

The recent fiscal year of 2025–2026 was particularly demanding. As many of you know, I had the responsibility of providing pastoral care for two parishes, St. Charles and St. Matthias, while also overseeing St. Charles School and St. Matthias Preschool, all without the assistance of a parochial vicar. There were many days filled with meetings, school activities, sacramental celebrations, hospital visits, funerals, weddings, administrative responsibilities, and the ordinary demands of parish life.

Yet through it all, God remained faithful.

I would not have been able to carry out this ministry without your patience, understanding, prayers, and generous support. I am deeply grateful to our parish staff, school administrators, teachers, volunteers, ministry leaders, deacons, and parishioners who stepped forward whenever help was needed. Together, we continued the mission of Christ in our communities.

For this reason, I am especially thankful that beginning July 1, we will welcome our new Parochial Vicar, Fr. Alner Nambatac. His arrival will be a great blessing to our parishes. In next week's Pastor's Message, we will introduce him more fully. We will also have a Welcome Mass followed by a simple coffee and doughnut reception after the 8:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses. I hope you will join us in extending a warm welcome to him.

This experience of the past year reminds me of the Gospel reading for this Sunday from the Gospel of Matthew.

Jesus teaches that discipleship requires placing Him above everything else. He says that anyone who loves father or mother, son or daughter more than Him is not worthy of Him. These words do not diminish the importance of family. Rather, Jesus reminds us that God must always come first in our lives. When we place Christ at the center, we learn to love our families and others more faithfully and generously.

Jesus also speaks about taking up our cross and following Him. Every vocation carries its own crosses and sacrifices. Parents make sacrifices for their children. Teachers dedicate themselves to forming young minds. Volunteers generously give their time and talents. Priests dedicate their lives to serving God's people. While these sacrifices can sometimes be difficult, they become meaningful when offered in love for Christ. Finally, Jesus concludes the Gospel with a beautiful message about welcoming others. He tells us that whoever welcomes His disciples welcomes Him, and even a simple act such as giving a cup of cold water to someone in need will not go unnoticed by God.

Throughout this past year, I have witnessed many examples of that spirit in our parishes. I have seen parishioners welcoming newcomers, volunteers serving quietly behind the scenes, donors supporting our projects, teachers caring for their students, and families helping one another in times of need. These simple acts of kindness may seem small, but in God's eyes they are precious and worthy of reward.

As we enter a new fiscal year and prepare to welcome our new parochial vicar, let us continue to place Christ first in our lives and serve one another with generous hearts. May our parish communities always be places where people encounter the love, welcome, and presence of Jesus Christ.

With gratitude and prayers,

Fr. Roy

MASS INTENTIONS

As a community of faith, we are called to support one another through prayer and the celebration of the Holy Mass.

We encourage you to offer Masses for a variety of special intentions, including:

For the Sick: Remember your loved ones who are suffering in body, mind, or spirit. Lift them up in prayer through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

For the Souls of the Departed: Especially on the anniversaries of death, offer Masses for the eternal repose of those who have gone before us.

In Thanksgiving: Give thanks to God for the graces and blessings you have received, whether they be in times of joy, healing, or guidance.

For Personal or Family Intentions: If you or a family member are facing a particular need or challenge, let the Eucharistic sacrifice be a source of grace and strength.

Offering Masses is a powerful way to unite our intentions with the love and sacrifice of Christ. Please consider this opportunity to deepen your connection to God's mercy and love.

To arrange for a Mass offering, please contact the Parish Office.

May God bless you all abundantly.

Next weekend's Second Collection will benefit the Education Programs
