Charlotte-Mecklenburg Board of Education selects members to serve on the Community Capital & Bond Committee

Charlotte, NC – The Charlotte-Mecklenburg Board of Education, at its June 23, 2026 regular board meeting, selected community members to serve on the Board of Education’s Community Capital & Bond Committee.

The purpose of this committee is primarily to ensure capital projects match those priorities described in the bond referendum and the board-approved Capital Improvement Plan (CIP).

The following community members were selected:

Michael Brown	Nicole Ingram	Joy Patterson
Candace Gaddy	Adrienne Martinez	Ayesha Raza
Jeremy Golden	Allen Nelson	Leyha Williams

“The Community Capital & Bond Committee plays a critical role in helping us deliver on the promises we have made to our students, families, and taxpayers,” said Board of Education Chairperson Stephanie Sneed. “This committee provides valuable insight and oversight as we manage school construction projects, modernize facilities, and invest bond dollars responsibly.”

She goes on to say, “The individuals, selected by board members, bring diverse expertise and a shared commitment to ensuring that every project supports student success, meets community needs, and serves our district well for generations to come. We look forward to working alongside them as we continue building the future of Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools.”
